Enter the pleasure dimension

What is it?

Next is Womanizer's new premium flagship product, offering a luxurious pleasure experience with cutting edge new features as well as our new advanced 3D Pleasure Air Technology. Womanizer Next is an exciting new frontier for Womanizer – and for the pleasure industry as a whole.

What sets Next apart?

Next offers more customizable stimulation than ever before – all while running in near silence. Our new Climax Control feature allows a deeper, richer and more varied form of Pleasure Air clitoral massage – a new dimension of pleasure for true connoisseurs.

Key Selling Points

3D Pleasure Air Technology

Improved contactless clitoral air stimulation through waves for a richer sensation.

Climax Control

Climax Control changes the depth of the Pleasure Air Waves for a richer, fuller sensation.

Whisper Quiet

Our quietest product yet, Next is designed for discretion. No distractions, just pure pleasure.

Autopilot

Let Next guide your pleasure by choosing a preset intensity journey.

Who is it for?

Our user is a connoisseur – Next is for pleasure seekers and experienced explorers looking to heighten masturbation & play and discover new sensations – and aren't afraid to go after what they want. They certainly own other sex toys and are looking for something that can give them a new orgasmic experience.

How to demo

- Explain that Next is the exciting future of pleasure – a new level of innovation from the pioneers who invented Pleasure Air Technology.
- Turn the toy on using the power button. Demonstrate Next's new 3D Pleasure Air Technology by cycling through the 14 intensity levels using the + and – buttons. Explain that Next has a new, improved motor and allows more customization and a richer sensation than any toy before.
- Invite users to feel the gentle yet intense suction on their fingertip by touching the stimulation head.
- Now press the Climax Control button and explain that this allows users to vary the depth of the Pleasure Air stimulation, allowing for a more customizable orgasmic journey. There are 3 levels of Climax Control for Next.
- Note how quiet Next runs – near silence, without sacrificing any power.
- Note Next's advanced features: Autopilot, which allows you to lie back and enjoy an exciting pre-set pleasure path without you having to press anything!
- Describe Smart Silence, which preserves battery life and minimizes noise by only turning the toy on when in direct contact with the skin.
- Demonstrate the afterglow feature by pressing the (-) button for one second: the toy quickly reverts to its lowest setting for a relaxing end to an orgasm.
- The toy is rechargeable via magnetic USB cable - charge for 120 minutes for a 120 minute runtime.
Note that Womanizer Next is available in three colors: Black, Dark Purple and Sage.
